Home Alone Safety

Do you stay home alone sometimes? Here are good safety tips you can talk over with a parent or guardian to see what works best for you and your family.

- If someone knocks at your door, DON'T ANSWER IT...even if they look friendly or wear a uniform like a delivery person or cable worker.
- If someone calls and asks for an adult in the house...don't tell the person there is no adult home. Just say, "They cannot come to the phone right now. May I take a message?" NEVER tell anyone you are home alone.
- Lock it up. Learn how to lock and unlock all doors and windows. Always make sure all the doors are locked even when you are inside.
- If you hear strange noises...ask a parent or guardian what the noises may have been. Talk about HOW and WHEN to call +91.....

Never cook by yourself. Always ask a grown-up first before using the stove, microwave, toaster oven, or sharp knives

- Choose a Safe House. With a parent or guardian, ask a trusted neighbor if you can go to their home if you need help fast. This will be your Safe House.
- Be alert. Be aware of your home BEFORE you go inside. If something outside your home doesn't look right, like a broken window or an open door, DON'T GO INSIDE! Go to your Safe House and ask for help.

Use your imagination to color this house to match your home!

Fire Safety

You know fires are hot.
You know fires can be dangerous.
Fires can also be very loud and scary.
Let's learn how you and your family can stay safe!

Learn Fire Safety Basic

What will you do if there's a fire in your home?

Have an escape plan.

Talk with your family about an escape plan. You should have two ways out — a Plan A and a Plan B — in case one way is blocked by fire.

Have a family meeting place.

Decide with to meet your family where outside, away from the fire.

Crawl.

Remember to stay close to the floor when moving. The smoke of a fire will rise to the ceiling. It will be easier to breathe if you are close to the floor.

Feel.

Always feel doors before you open them. A hot door means there may be fire on the other side. Try another way out.

Know how to open windows and doors.

Have a parent or guardian show you how to unlock windows and doors in your home.

IMPORTANT! Get out first.

Stay calm and move quickly. NEVER look for your favorite things. You need to get out fast! Call+ 91----- AFTER you get outside.

STAY outside.

Stay outside — no matter what. NEVER go back into a burning building!

Practice what to do.

As a family, have a fire drill. Practice your escape Plans A and B and know where to meet outside.

Smoke Detectors Save Lives

How would you know if your home was on fire? Smoke detectors alert you if there is smoke in the air. A smoke detector makes a very loud beeping noise to warn you that a fire has started.

Is There a Bully at Your School?

Bullies can tease you, call you names, push you, tell bad secrets about you and embarrass you. Bullies can be scary, mean and harmful. Some schools have anti-bully rules, which means bullying is against school rules.

REMEMBER: Always tell a trusted adult about bullies — no matter what!

Read these safety rules with a parent or guardian.

- Try to Talk it Out.

Say, "Why are you being mean to me? What have I done to you?"

- Speak Up.

Say, "Stop picking on me!"

- Make a Joke.

If you say something funny, even about yourself, the bully might laugh and forget about picking on you.

- Walk Away From the Bully.

That's right — just turn around and walk away! You don't have to put up with someone being mean to you.

- Stick With Your Friends.

- Tell an Adult About Bullies.

Cyberbullying

What is a cyberbully?

Cyberbullies use emails, instant messaging (IM), social networking sites and cell phones to say mean, embarrassing, or hurtful things about someone else.

REMEMBER!
Be as nice online
as you are offline.

What might a cyberbully do?

A cyberbully might tell others embarrassing information about you or put photos of you online for everyone to see. They might also start rumors about you. It's a lot like the bullying that can happen at recess or on the school bus — and it can hurt just as much.

Follow these safety rules:

- Keep your passwords safe! You can tell your parents — but no one else. Not even your best friend!
- Don't share secrets, photos or anything online you wouldn't want the whole school to see.
- Have your mom or dad or a trusted adult help you set up your email and instant message accounts. Never include your name, age, address, or phone number in your profile or screen name.
- Don't send messages when you're angry. Wait until you cool off so you don't say something you'll regret.
- Let bullies know that cyberbullying is not OK. If your friends are cyberbullying, tell them that it's not funny and that cyberbullying hurts people.
- Be as nice online as you are offline.

Pretend the boxes below are your cell phone or computer screen.
Read the incoming messages, then choose your response.

- Me: Forward the pic 2 me and I'll send it 2 every1 I know!
- Me: U shouldn't do that! I bet Molly has some bad photos of u 2.

If a Cyberbully is Bothering You :

- Don't respond to emails or messages that are mean to you or your friends.
- Don't forward emails or messages that are mean or that spread rumors about other people.
- Don't open emails or messages from someone you know is a bully.
- Block anyone who acts like a cyberbully.
- Save or print all messages from bullies.
- Show the messages to an adult you trust — like a parent or a teacher — and ask for help. If the first adult you tell doesn't help you, keep telling until someone does.

Choose Your Response:

Me: Why would Nick do that? That's really mean.

Me: Nick is so funny.

Gun Safety

If You Find a Gun:

Follow McGruff's
Four Steps to Safety

NEVER touch or play with a gun!

Talk with a parent or guardian more about gun safety.

What you should do if...

...your friend wants to show you their parents' gun — and they say it isn't loaded:

Leave! Tell a trusted adult!

...you find a gun in a park or on the playground:

Don't touch it! Get away!

Vandalism

Do you know what VANDALISM is?

Vandalism is deliberate destruction of public or private property. Many kids think vandalism is fun, exciting and daring, but vandalism is against the law.

Some types of vandalism:

- writing or scratching your name on a park picnic table, bench, or on a tree
- spray painting a building
- throwing a rock through a store, house, or car window
- scratching a car with keys
- ripping pages out of a library or school book
- painting or scratching street signs

Another type of vandalism is called graffiti. You might see graffiti on railroad cars, empty buildings or highway bridges. Graffiti, or words made into graphics, can look interesting and colorful — but it is still vandalism and against the law.

Gangs

Stay away and stay safe!

Gangs are groups of kids or adults that might get into trouble with the police, they might sell drugs, give you money if you do something illegal for them, vandalize property, and carry guns.

To join a gang, you may have to do something against the law or bully someone before you can join the gang.

What you can do to stop violence:

- Settle arguments with words, not fists or weapons. Don't stand around and form an audience when others are arguing. A group makes a good target for violence.

- Learn safe routes for walking and know good places to seek help. Trust your feelings, and if you sense danger, get away fast.

- Report crimes to the police, school authorities, and a parent or guardian.

YOU COULD GET HURT!

Learn to avoid gangs:

- stay with your friends
- walk away from a gang when you see one
- NEVER join a gang
- ALWAYS tell an adult you trust about gang activity

Do You and Your Friends Keep Secrets?

Secrets can be GOOD and fun — like planning a surprise party for a friend, or knowing what your sister will get for her birthday.

BAD secrets make you feel sad, scared, angry or uncomfortable — like cheating on a test or stealing something. You should always tell a trusted adult about BAD secrets, and they can help you decide what to do.

If you're not sure if a secret is good or bad, ask an adult you trust!

With the help of a parent or guardian, decide which of the secrets below are GOOD or BAD?

J Make a smiley face for the GOOD secrets.

Make a frown face L for the BAD secrets.

- _____ Your mom is planning a surprise party for your dad.
- _____ Your name, address, and phone number — when you're online.
- _____ When you are staying home alone.
- _____ You see your friend spray paint a building, like your school, and they ask you not to tell anyone.
- _____ An adult does something that makes you feel uncomfortable.
- _____ Your best friend tells you the person they secretly like.
- _____ Your brother tells you he's joining a gang.
- _____ Your sister tells you she met a boy online and is going to meet him later at the park.
- _____ Your computer password (but be sure to tell your parent or guardian).
- _____ The neighborhood kid has a new bike that looks just like your friend's. You ask the kid where he got the bike and he says he found it, but don't tell anyone.
- _____ Your grandmother bought your family a dog that you helped pick out. She tells you to keep it a secret because she wants it to be a surprise.

Are You Ready?

Every family should have a Family Emergency Kit and a Family Communication Plan. This includes a Family Meeting Spot — which is a place where everyone in your family knows to go in case you cannot go home. Family members should also carry a contact list with two different phone numbers of family or friends who live out of town. You can contact them to let them know you are safe.

What is a Family Emergency Kit?

A Family Emergency Kit includes items to use in case your family experiences an extended period of time when there is no electricity or running water. There may not be power for the television or the Internet, and no cell phone signals.

Talk with a parent or guardian about what might cause a family emergency and when to use your Family Emergency Kit.
